

Joan Leslie Hernandez

Joan lives in Lemon Grove, California. She graduated from San Diego State University.

She is a member of the San Diego Enamel Guild and Enamel Guild West and has been enameling for over twenty years. Her favorite enameling techniques to use are sifting, painting and cloisonné. Her inspiration for her craft comes from animals and nature.

Shows and Exhibitions:

- San Diego Senior Craft Show and Sales
- Enamel Guild Shows,
- Cat shows
- Cat Connection.

She has been a teacher of all types of Arts and Crafts teaching children of all ages.

Interesting Fact:

She was the first woman traffic tech in the Western States.